International Year of Sanitation (IYS)

The UN General Assembly declared 2008 as the International Year of Sanitation. The website provides information on key issues, objectives, related events and resources. <http://esa.un.org/iys>

WEDC Sanitation Resources Collection

Coinciding with the launch of the IYS, this is a collection of sanitation-related resources, including publications, research projects and past conference papers, mostly available as free downloads. http://wedc.lboro.ac.uk/news_IYOS.php

Joint Monitoring Programme (JMP) for Water and Sanitation

The JMP reports on trends in water supply and sanitation, supporting countries to monitor this sector, to enable better planning and management. The 2006 report analyses how access to drinking water and sanitation services is evolving. <http://www.wssinfo.org/en/welcome.html>

Africa and the Millennium Development Goals (2007 update)

At the mid-point for achievement of the MDGs, sub-

Saharan Africa is not on track to achieve any of the Goals, including access to sanitation. <http://www.un.org/millenniumgoals/docs/MDGafrika07.pdf>

The Sanitation Scandal

Working with the Overseas Development Institute (ODI) and partners, Tearfund has researched exactly why progress on improving sanitation access has been so slow. http://www.tearfund.org/webdocs/Website/Campaigning/Policy%20and%20research/SanitationScandal_web.pdf

Supporting Non-State Providers (NSPs) of Water Services

Commissioned by DFID, this considers the scale, importance and comparative advantage of NSP activity in the sanitation sector. <http://www.lboro.ac.uk/well/resources/well-studies/full-reports-pdf/task2765ii.pdf>

Looking back: The long-term impacts of water and sanitation projects

This report is one of a series which analyses WaterAid's experience in supporting integrated water, sanitation and hygiene promotion projects in developing countries. <http://www.wateraid.org/documents/lookingback.pdf>
